

Equinox Youth Workshop

A once-in-a-lifetime experience!

January 21, 2014

Equinox by Doug Erion, Doug Rutledge and Jack Kreutzer
To be installed at the northeast intersection of I-25 &
Highway 34 in 2014

Dear Student and Family,

The City of Loveland Art in Public Places program invites students (K-12th grade) that are eager to be part of a unique community art project! In this hands-on workshop, students will work closely with the Equinox Design Team, the artists who won the sculpture competition for the intersection of I-25 and Highway 34! You will learn from the best while creating your own artwork.

Students will be instructed on:

Artists' processes in creating public art
Finding inspiration for your own artwork
How to design elements that express your artistic vision
How to create art that is safe for public display

The workshops will be held as follows:

K-5th graders	Monday, February 17	10am — 12pm
6th-8th graders	Monday, February 17	1:30pm—4:30pm
9th-12th graders	Wednesday, February 19	2pm—5pm

While this workshop is free, students must apply for this program. Only 15 students will be selected for each age group. Students will use a variety of 2D media to assist the Equinox artists in developing images that represent their hometown.

Workshop Location: Loveland Museum/Gallery, 503 N. Lincoln Avenue, downtown Loveland.

Benefits of participation

- A chance to meet, work with and learn from local professional artists
- Out-of-classroom instruction art lesson
- Learn new creative skills that you might not already know
- Meet students from other schools

Applications must be turned into the Museum/Gallery by Sunday, February 9th at 4:00 p.m.

Students will be notified if they are accepted into the workshop.
