Recruitment Open House

The City of Loveland Youth Advisory Commission was established by City Council to serve as a link between the council and the youth of Loveland. YAC helps to identify issues pertaining to youth, communicate the concerns of youth and suggest possible action to be taken. The Commission works with the City to suggest action to be taken, propose programs and events and advise City Departments on youth issues.

Want the opportunity to...

- ... learn more about local government?
- ... meet new people?
- ... travel and learn more about leadership development?
- ... participate in meaningful and creative community service projects?
- ... HAVE FUN?
