CHIEF'S REPORT

Chief updated the Board on the recent flood that hit Loveland and presented a slide show of the flooded areas and damage. Chief presented a power point on the Event Timeline and the Operation Objectives. Chief indicated that first and foremost was Life Safety followed by Incident Stabilization and Property Preservation. Chief briefly updated the daily schedule of the Emergency Operations Command Post once the severity of the flooding was recognized .. once the rain began to fall. Chief indicated that once the flood hit the city was divided into two sections .. north and south. Police officers then began their 12 hour emergency shifts and were positioned at roadblocks as well as providing security. After the flood an emergency center was opened for those affected at the Rocky Mountain Technology Center on Hwy 402 to receive information and assistance from FEMA. Approximate cost is at least $150,000 which should be reimbursed by FEMA. In the end FEMA congratulated the City of Loveland on the great work they did in outlining hours, vehicles and manpower for recovery reimbursement. In the end two lives were lost of residents of Cedar Cove, Larimer County.
