

1. Existing entrance drive and upper visitor parking area.

2. Existing entrance drive to former lower parking area.

3. Former park and parking area washed out by flood.

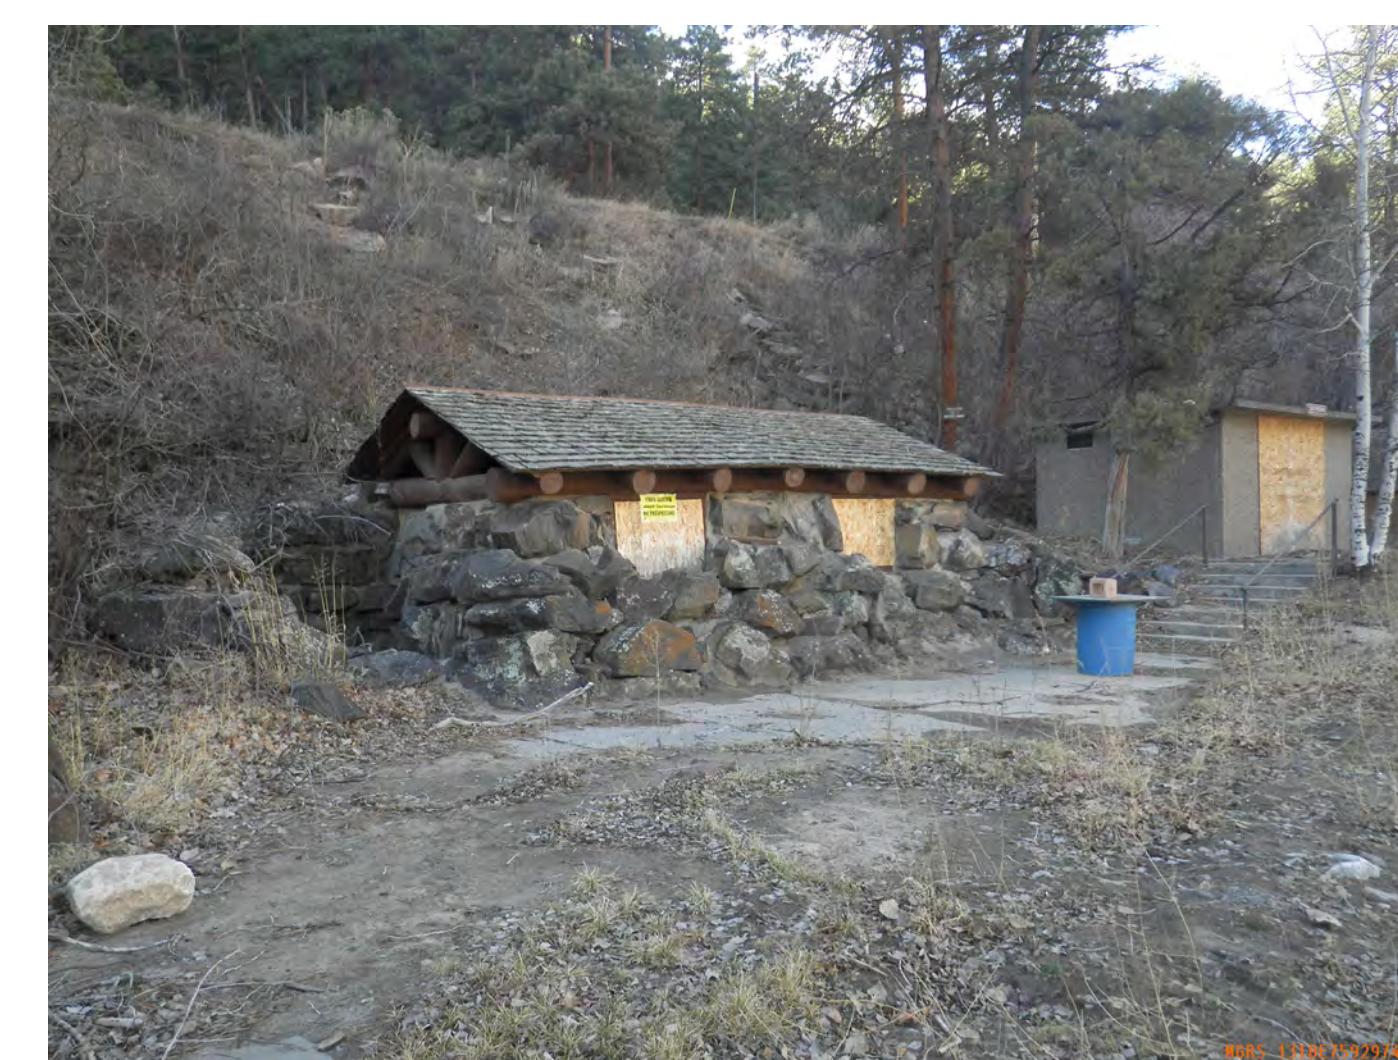

4. Access road to rental homes east of the park.

5. Trail to river from upper parking area.

6. CCC era picnic shelter.

7. CCC era Butterfly Building with vault restroom in the background.

8. Old power plant building.

9. Washed out original bridge.

10. Former lower meadow and CCC shelter area.

11. Environmental Education Center with realigned channel in foreground

12. CCC era dry-stacked stone wall.

13. Cottonwood and pine trees.

14. CDOT slope treatment along east bank of US 34.

15. Historic caretaker's house and maintenance building.

16. Old power plant building with interpretive signage.

17. Louis Papa interpretive signage.

18. Interpretive signage in tree grove.

19. Gravel maintenance access road blocked to thru traffic with US 34 beyond.

20. Hydroelectric turbines buried in mud and debris with former power plant building beyond.

Site Analysis

Viestenz-Smith Mountain Park
April 8, 2015

LOGAN SIMPSON

TETRA TECH