

VOLUNTEER TRAINING FOR ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATORS

River's Edge Natural Area
960 W. 1st Street

Tuesday - Friday, September 5-8, 2017 (choose 1 or more days)
8:30 am-12:30 pm

Become certified to teach local school children about nature

Free training for volunteers to help teach grade school environmental education programs. Learn to give short interactive presentations at small group stations. No previous knowledge or experience necessary.

Choose one or more subjects:

- Tuesday, September 5: Urban Wilderness

Topics: animal adaptations, rivers & watersheds, grasslands & open spaces, urban wildlife, river macroinvertebrates lab, changing climate

- Wednesday, September 6: Wildlife Around Us

Topics: life zones, animal classification, wildlife management, animal adaptations, changing climate

- Thursday, September 7: Plants and Places

Topics: seed dispersal, cottonwoods, cattails lab & pond plants, plants & places scavenger hunt

- Friday, September 8: Urban Wilderness (Review any subject by request)

Time Commitment:

- On-site training – 4 hours per subject
- Teaching – 1 weekday per week, from 9:00am-2:00pm (or ½- day sessions available)
- Fall programs – September & October
- Spring programs – April & May

Join our team! Registration required.

To register, visit: <https://offero.cityofloveland.org>

For more information, contact Michele Van Hare, Coordinator:

(970) 962-2643 or (970) 217-3173 or Michele.VanHare@CityofLoveland.org

WWW.CITYOFLOVELAND.ORG/OPENLANDS