AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. Plaintiff's claims are barred or limited by the provisions of C.R.S. § 24-10-101 et seq. ("Colorado Governmental Immunity Act").
2. The alleged damages were proximately caused by the comparative negligence of Plaintiff, Shannon Lewis, precluding or reducing any recovery pursuant to C.R.S. § 13-21-111.
3. Plaintiff assumed the risk of the acts involved.
4. The defense is entitled to a presumption of negligence per se against Plaintiff on the basis of, but not limited to, the following: Plaintiff breached her duty to exercise more than ordinary care and caution under the circumstances at hand, and in so doing, was in violation of C.R.S. § 42-4-224(5)(a).
5. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the provisions of C.R.S. § 42-4-224(5)(b).
6. Plaintiff's claims are substantially frivolous, groundless and vexatious, unreasonably necessitating the effort and expense of a defense by Defendants. Therefore, Defendants shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees in defense of said claims for relief pursuant to C.R.S. 1973 § 13-17-101, et seq., and C.R.C.P. Rule 11.
7. The accident in question and the damages alleged have previously been litigated in case number 2015C031448, County Court, Larimer County. The doctrine of res judicata prohibits the relitigation of this claim as a final judgment was obtained in the previous case.
8. The doctrine of collateral estoppel precludes relitigation of the matters litigated in 2015C031448.

9. The doctrine of issue preclusion precludes relitigation of the issues litigated in 2015C031448.

10. The doctrine of claim preclusion precludes relitigation of all claims that were, or could have been, asserted in 2015C031448.

11. Defendants respectfully request the right to amend this Answer in the future to include additional affirmative defenses as discovery reveals facts sufficient to support a well-grounded basis for such defenses.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered the Complaint and all claims for relief set forth therein, Defendants pray for judgment against Plaintiff and dismissal of all claims with prejudice. Further, Defendants pray for such costs and expenses as may be incurred in this action, for expert witness fees, and for such other relief as the Court deems proper.
