

POLICE CITIZEN ADVISORY BOARD (PCAB)

Roles and Duties

Background

The Commission was originally established as the Police Department Citizen's Advisory Commission on July 16, 1996 with nine (9) members (Ord. #4187). On April 16, 2002, Council removed all references to the "department" and the Commission was renamed Police Citizen Advisory Board (Ord. #4711).

Roles and Duties of the Commission

The duties are established by Municipal Code 2.60.220, as follows:

Police citizen advisory board.

A. There is established a police citizen advisory board consisting of nine members appointed by the city council. The term of office of each member shall be three years.

B. The purpose of the police citizen advisory board shall be to support communication and education between the community and the Loveland police department. Additionally, the board shall serve as an advisory body to the Loveland police department and the city council concerning police policy, planning, and program issues.
